1. According to a special plan contained in an SMA order [redacted] wooden houses valued at RM 20,000,000 have to be delivered to the Russians in 1947. The group leader for all firms engaged in filling this order and responsible for its prompt execution is the firm Christoph & Unmack, Niesky (Saxony). The price for the houses was fixed at RM 13,700, although the cost is RM 18,000. The SMA has refused to grant a price increase. The Saxonian government must pay the balance.
